MEXICAN DRUG DEALER SENTENCED

PRESS RELEASE

INDIANAPOLIS - Enrique Marquez, 28, a citizen of Mexico, was sentenced to 60 months in prison yesterday by U.S. District Judge Sarah Evans Barker following his guilty plea to conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute and to distribute in excess of five kilograms of a mixture or substance containing cocaine, announced Joseph H. Hogsett, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana. This case was the result of an Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force investigation by the Drug Enforcement Administration and the Indiana State Police.

Marquez was one of 16 persons to be prosecuted in this case involving a conspiracy to distribute cocaine from the state of Texas to the Indianapolis, Lafayette, and Crawfordsville, Ind. areas and elsewhere.

According to Assistant U.S. Attorney Josh J. Minkler, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge Barker also imposed five years supervised release following Marquez 's release from prison.

Marquez is the last defendant to be sentenced in this case. The sentences imposed by Judge Barker relative to the other defendants are as follows:
